

PERCUSSIONISTS WANTED:

Customer Relations Manager!

As a classical percussionist, would you like to contribute your knowledge and skills to our team - in the most beautiful place percussionists can imagine? Then apply now as a customer support relations manager in Ugingen.

You can expect a unique job in terms of creative freedom, personal responsibility and variety:

- You will give product advice and make sales in German and English
- You organise visits from university classes, orchestras and customers from all over the world
- You are the first point of contact for our customers in our manufactory and look after them personally
- You design and equip the exhibition area and test the instruments with regard to quality
- You build up a personal network with the most important institutions and personalities in the percussion world and are present at the most important fairs, competitions and festivals
- You support the office in the creation and processing of orders
- In addition, you can also contribute to product developments

YOU CAN EXPECT:

- A job with real added value, where you are valued for a commitment and your skills
- Networking with the most important orchestras and percussionists worldwide
- A very varied and versatile working day
- Up to 30 days of holiday, full- and part-time possible (at least 60%)
- Home office partly possible as well as flexible working hours
- Familiar working atmosphere and company pension scheme with maximum support
- And of course: the percussionists paradise on earth incl. special conditions

PREREQUISITE:

- You can be in Ugingen (Germany) for at least 3 days per week
- You are interested in a new field of work
- Solid knowledge of English (German is not prerequisite)

INTERESTED?

If you want to know more about what your working day would look like, send us an email now to: jobs@kolberg.com and include some basic information about yourself

EMAIL US!

KOLBERG
G E R M A N Y